

SEAL SKIN COVERS
— ULTRA TOUGH COVERS, MANUFACTURED DIRECT —

Warranty

Seal Skin manufactures covers directly for your marine needs. Our business model is unique because own the entire supply chain allowing us to monitor and guarantee high quality covers at low prices. Seal Skin Covers warrants our covers to be free from defects in material or workmanship.

The warranty period for our products starts from the date of purchase of the product by the original purchaser and is 10 years. Seal Skin Covers warrants that it will repair or replace, once, any product which under normal conditions or use and service, and which has been properly installed, proves to be defective in material or workmanship. This warranty is limited to the original customer, i.e. is not transferable to owners of the product. This warranty does not cover accessories and specifically a lies to the cover only. SealSkin Covers will cover all costs involved in repair or replace, the cover except for shipping. The warranty covers up to one full replacement during the warranty period.

Specifically, excluded from this warranty are failures caused by misuse, negligence, modification, abuse, improper location, installation or operation, or by unauthorized service or use of unauthorized parts in connection with the product and inadequate maintenance. Aesthetics are not covered including staining, fading over time, spills, or bleeding. It is your responsibility to ensure that when the cover is in use you take all necessary precautions to protect yourself and your vehicle. In any instance we are only liable for the cover itself. We are not liable for the vehicle.

If you're looking for quality boat covers, visit our website.